

Funding Application

1. Membership number:

2. Title:

Surname:

First name:

Institution:

Address:

City:

Postcode:

Telephone:

E-mail:

3. What grant are you applying for? (tick the box)

Meeting sponsorship

Heredity Fieldwork Grant

Junior Scientist Travel Grant

Genes and Development Summer Studentship

Training Grant

Travel to Genetic Society Meetings

4. Description of activity that the grant will pay for. (max 500 words)

Funding Application Form continued...

5. Benefits to the applicant, research group or research community. (max 250 words)

6. Amount you are applying for:

7. Justification of resources. (max 250 words)
Please note the maximum amount you can claim for under your chosen scheme.
The society only supports economy class travel. Please note that receipts must be provided for all claims.

8. Applications for The Junior Scientist Travel Grant may include talk / poster abstract. (max 300 words)

Completed applications, with any supporting documentation, should be emailed to: theteam@genetics.org.uk, with the Grant applied for and the name of applicant as the subject header.

Additional notes

- Applicants for the Genes and Development Summer Studentship must send the proposed student's CV along with this application form.
- Students applying for the Junior Scientist Travel Grants must ask their supervisor to send a short supporting message with the student's surname in the email title..
- All applicants must have been a member of the Genetics Society for a minimum of one year.